

I would like to make my comments against the petition filed by Consumer Bankers Association. Indiana's Telephone Privacy law is a boon to consumers like me who are now enjoying the evenings free of unnecessary telemarketing calls. I would request that this petition be declined and the Indiana's telephone privacy law should not be weakened.